The Louisville Free Public Library is offering more than 100 free programs for youth during spring break

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (March 31, 2022) – Looking for activities to keep kids and teens entertained during spring break that won't break the bank? Check out the Louisville Free Public Library!

With more than 100 free programs, LFPL can help combat spring break boredom with fun and engaging programs for all ages. LFPL offers hands-on learning programs for children to play, create, and explore together, including musical storytimes with Louisville Orchestra ensembles, Kentucky Shakespeare's two-actor "Much Ado About Nothing," Mr. Moustache's Magic Show, and STEAM Clubs at several locations.

Teenagers can participate in a variety of creative projects at branches around town, as well as just hang out and meet other teens in a safe space. Programs include open hours in our Maker Labs, several poetry workshops, classes on how to use a Glowforge laser cutter, and more.

The Library also offers kids and teens access to thousands of books, eBooks, graphic novels, blockbuster movies, and popular music – available free with a library card.

Spring Break at the Library starts this weekend. For a complete list of programs and more, go to LFPL.org/SpringBreak.
