The Louisville Free Public Library is offering more than 100 FREE programs for youth during spring break

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (March 28, 2022) – Are you staycating this Spring Break and looking for some free activities to keep the kids busy? Or maybe your teenagers need a no-cost place to hang out and relax? Then check out the Louisville Free Public Library!

Starting Friday, March 31, LFPL will offer more than 100 free programs and activities to help combat spring break boredom for kids of all ages. LFPL offers hands-on learning programs for children to play, create, and explore together, including interactive storytimes, puppet shows, crafts, scavenger hunts, and STEAM activities at locations across Louisville. Spring Break presenters include Louisville Nature Center, Ambo Dance Theatre, storyteller Marsha Roth, Second Chances Wildlife, and 4-H.

Teenagers can participate in a variety of creative projects at branches around town, as well as just hang out and meet other teens in a safe space. Programs include open hours in our Maker Labs, board and video games, book and writing clubs, and more.

The Library also offers kids and teens access to thousands of books, eBooks, graphic novels, blockbuster movies, and popular music – available free with a library card.

Spring Break at the Library runs March 31 through April 8. For a complete list of programs and more, go to LFPL.org/SpringBreak.
