Family S.T.E.A.M. Day returns to the South Central Regional Library

Saturday, September 30, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Louisville, Ky. (September 14, 2023) -- The Louisville Free Public Library's annual Family S.T.E.A.M. Day returns to the South Central Regional Library, 7300 Jefferson Boulevard, on Saturday, September 30, from 11 a.m. – 3 p.m. This FREE family-friendly event offers amazing presentations and hands-on activities to get kids excited about Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Math.

This year's S.T.E.A.M. Day includes Southland Dairy's mobile classroom (with a real cow), Kentucky Science Center exploring the human body, a look at local wildlife with Louisville Nature Center, virtual reality and robotics with Central Creativity, and sun-gazing with the Louisville Astronomical Society's solar telescopes. Irving Materials will be back to show kids how to make concrete and KMAC will lead art-making. Plus, take a selfie with our special guests from the Princesses of Louisville – Ariel and Eric from the Little Mermaid.

For more information, including a complete schedule of activities, visit LFPL.org/Kids or call (502) 964-3515. Free parking and shuttle service will be available from the Target parking lot.
